Conflict of Interest Statement

Assign your signature to signify that you agree to abide by this statement.

1. As a Director, and/or officer, and/or committee member or an employee in a position to influence or vote on policy or expenditures of Breast Cancer Fund of Ohio (BCFO), I shall exercise good faith in all transactions relating to BCFO. I will not use my position or knowledge gained therefrom, directly or indirectly, to influence my conduct with regard to any personal interests including the personal interests of my spouse, other immediate family member or domestic partner; or the interests of any corporation, partnership, proprietorship, firm, association in which I have significant administrative responsibilities or in which I have any financial interest (or if a publicly traded company, an ownership interest of at least 5%) as a shareholder, partner, owner or otherwise; nor will I allow any such interest to influence a decision regarding the governance or administration of BCFO.
2. All acts shall be undertaken for the benefit of BCFO with respect to transactions, activities or dealings related to BCFO.
3. With respect to any proposed contract or other transaction between BCFO and myself or any party in which I have an interest (as stated above) considered by the Board of Directors, the officers, or any committee of BCFO for authorization, approval or ratification, the following rules shall apply:
  - a. Full disclosure of the relationship or interest shall be made to the Chair of the BCFO Board of Directors and Executive Director prior to discussion or action on such contract or transaction;
  - b. I will present factual information and respond to questions, but will not participate in the discussion, deliberations or BCFO's decision with respect to such contract or transaction, nor attempt to use any personal influence;
  - c. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote taken and, where applicable, my abstention from voting and participating.
4. I will safeguard sensitive BCFO information, which includes and is not limited to: strategies, policies or confidential information relating to programs, projects, research, customers or client information, information from other organizations that is not to be disseminated; and fiscal, salary or other personal and personnel information.
5. I will disclose to BCFO's Board of Directors and Executive Director of other non-profit, charitable organizations for whom I participate in fundraising activities (please list below).

By signing this document I acknowledge I understand and agree to the statements made above.

Conflict of Interest Statement

Assign your signature to signify that you agree to abide by this statement.

1. As a Director, and/or officer, and/or committee member or an employee in a position to influence or vote on policy or expenditures of Breast Cancer Fund of Ohio (BCFO), I shall exercise good faith in all transactions relating to BCFO. I will not use my position or knowledge gained therefrom, directly or indirectly, to influence my conduct with regard to any personal interests including the personal interests of my spouse, other immediate family member or domestic partner; or the interests of any corporation, partnership, proprietorship, firm, association in which I have significant administrative responsibilities or in which I have any financial interest (or if a publicly traded company, an ownership interest of at least 5%) as a shareholder, partner, owner or otherwise; nor will I allow any such interest to influence a decision regarding the governance or administration of BCFO.
2. All acts shall be undertaken for the benefit of BCFO with respect to transactions, activities or dealings related to BCFO.
3. With respect to any proposed contract or other transaction between BCFO and myself or any party in which I have an interest (as stated above) considered by the Board of Directors, the officers, or any committee of BCFO for authorization, approval or ratification, the following rules shall apply:
  - a. Full disclosure of the relationship or interest shall be made to the Chair of the BCFO Board of Directors and Executive Director prior to discussion or action on such contract or transaction;
  - b. I will present factual information and respond to questions, but will not participate in the discussion, deliberations or BCFO's decision with respect to such contract or transaction, nor attempt to use any personal influence;
  - c. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote taken and, where applicable, my abstention from voting and participating.
4. I will safeguard sensitive BCFO information, which includes and is not limited to: strategies, policies or confidential information relating to programs, projects, research, customers or client information, information from other organizations that is not to be disseminated; and fiscal, salary or other personal and personnel information.
5. I will disclose to BCFO's Board of Directors and Executive Director of other non-profit, charitable organizations for whom I participate in fundraising activities (please list below).

By signing this document I acknowledge I understand and agree to the statements made above.
